Lt. Col. Thompson M. Colkitt
OSD/PA
Room 2C764
The Pentagon
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Col. Colkitt:

The CIA objects to the release of any of the attached
classified documents to Professor [REDACTED]

These documents are classified "SECRET" in our SSU files and it is not understood how, when, or by whom the attached papers were downgraded to "CONFIDENTIAL."

It is also noted that the evaluation given to each report is included with each document. These are OSS
"SECRET" reports on the whole, concerning foreign governments and foreign nationals, including current [REDACTED] and they reveal
the sources of this intelligence information.

Charged with protecting intelligence methods and sources, the Director of Central Intelligence objects to the declassification of these documents and to their being furnished to Professor [REDACTED]
